- (b) in respect of the taxable income of any trust (other than a special trust), an amount of 40 cents on each rand of taxable income.

2. The rates of normal tax referred to in section 5 of this Act in respect of companies are, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4, as follows:—

- (a) on each rand of the taxable income of any company (excluding taxable income referred to in subparagraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h)) 30 cents, or, in the case of such a company which mines for gold on any gold mine and which is in terms of an option exercised by it exempt from the payment of secondary tax on companies, 38 cents;
- (b) in respect of the taxable income of any company which qualifies as a small business corporation as defined in section 12E of the Income Tax Act, 1962, on each rand of the taxable income as does not exceed R150 000, 15 cents, and on each rand of the taxable income of such company as exceeds R150 000, 30 cents;
- (c) on each rand of the taxable income of any employment company as defined in section 12E of the Income Tax Act, 1962, 35 cents;
- (d) on each rand of the taxable income derived by any company from mining for gold on any gold mine with the exclusion of so much of the taxable income as the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service determines to be attributable to the inclusion in the gross income of any amount referred to in paragraph (j) of the definition of "gross income" in section 1 of the Income

Tax Act, 1962, but after the set-off of any assessed loss in terms of section 20(1) of that Act, a percentage determined in accordance with the formula:

$$y = 37 - \frac{185}{x}$$

or, in the case of a company which is in terms of an option exercised by it exempt from the payment of secondary tax on companies, in accordance with the formula:

$$y = 46 - \frac{230}{x}$$

in which formulae y represents such percentage and x the ratio expressed as a percentage which the taxable income so derived (with the said exclusion, but before the set-off of any assessed loss or deduction which is not attributable to the mining for gold from the said mine) bears to the income so derived (with the said exclusion);

- (e) on each rand of the taxable income of any company, the sole or principal business of which in the Republic is, or has been, mining for gold and the determination of the taxable income of which for the period assessed does not result in an assessed loss, which the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service determines to be attributable to the inclusion in its gross income of any amount referred to in paragraph (j) of the definition of "gross income" in section 1 of the Income Tax Act, 1962, a rate equal to the average rate of normal tax or 30 cents, whichever is higher: Provided that for the purposes of this subparagraph, the average rate of normal tax shall be determined by dividing the total normal tax (excluding the tax determined in accordance with this subparagraph for the period assessed) paid by the company in respect of its aggregate taxable income from mining for gold on any gold mine for the period from which that company commenced its gold mining operations on that gold mine to the end of the period assessed, by the number of rands contained in the said aggregate taxable income;
- (f) on each rand of the taxable income derived by any company from carrying on long-term insurance business in respect of its individual policyholder fund, company policyholder fund and corporate fund, 30 cents;
- (g) on each rand of the taxable income (excluding taxable income referred to in subparagraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (h)) derived by a company which is not a resident and which carries on a trade through a branch or agency within the Republic, 35 cents;
- (h) on each rand of the taxable income derived by a qualifying company as contemplated in section 37H of the Income Tax Act, 1962, subject to the provisions of the said section, zero cents:

Provided that the tax determined in accordance with any of subparagraphs (a) to (h), inclusive, shall be payable in addition to the tax determined in accordance with any other of the said subparagraphs.

3. The rates set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be the rates required to be fixed by Parliament in accordance with the provisions of section 5(2) of the Income Tax Act, 1962.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 2, income derived from mining for gold shall include any income derived from silver, osmiridium, uranium, pyrites or other minerals which may be won in the course of mining for gold, and any other income which results directly from mining for gold.

5. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise indicates, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Income Tax Act, 1962, bears the meaning so assigned.

SCHEDULE 3TRANSITIONAL MINERAL AND PETROLEUM PROVISIONS

(Section 71)

Definitions

1. For purposes of this Schedule, unless the context otherwise indicates, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002 (Act No. 28 of 2002), bears the meaning so assigned.

Continuation of payments to State for removal and disposal of minerals or petroleum

2. (1) If a holder of any mining right, production right or mining permit or any prospecting right with a permission to remove and dispose of minerals or petroleum—

(a) acquired that right or permit upon conversion of an old order right or OP26 right in terms of Schedule II of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002; and

(b) was immediately before that conversion required to make lease, royalty or similar payments to the State in terms of any conditions imposed pursuant to the laws applicable in respect of that old order right or OP26 right, as consideration for the removal and disposal of minerals or petroleum, or would have been required to make such payments had any minerals or petroleum been removed and disposed of, that holder must, notwithstanding the repeal of any law in terms of which those conditions were imposed, make payments of that nature to the State to the extent that the mining right, production right, prospecting right or mining permit relates to the same mining or production area as the converted old order right or OP 26 right.

(2) (a) The Minister of Finance must, in consultation with the Minister, determine the amount of the payments required under subparagraph (1) according to the same practices, formulae and procedures which applied before conversion.

(b) Any provision providing for the payment of any penalties or interest charges for failure to make timely payment of the amounts referred to in subparagraph (1), which was in effect before conversion, continues to apply in respect of any failure to make timely payment as required under this Schedule.

Authority and responsibility for collection

3. The Minister has the authority and responsibility to collect the payments referred to in paragraph 2.

Commencement and termination

4. (1) This Schedule shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 May 2004.

(2) Paragraphs 1 and 2 cease to apply on 1 May 2009.
