

Exceptional women share their talents

JANINE DE VILLIERS

Promotions and Publications

On 6 August the Western Cape Provincial Library Service hosted a special celebration for the staff of the Library Service to commemorate National Women's Day.

The main speakers were author Diana Ferrus, well known for her poem dedicated to Sarah Baartman. She delighted the audience with her talk on Afrikaans and women writing in Afrikaans. The highlight of her talk was her rendition of the Sarah Baartman poem. The next speaker was Carmen Niehaus, food and décor editor of You magazine. She introduced her new cook book and the latest trends in cooking. The programme was concluded by a make-up and style demonstration presented by Nadine de Klerk, cosmetologist.

◁ You could hear a pin drop during Diana Ferrus's recitation of her poem dedicated to Sarah Baartman

▽ Nadine de Klerk demonstrating make-up techniques with Antoinette Brandt as the model

▷ Carmen Niehaus gives the audience a preview of her latest cookbook

▽ Library Service staff celebrating the day: (ltr) Jochera Salie (False Bay region), Sophia Rickett (False Bay region), Dalena le Roux (Central Reference), Liesel de Villiers (Deputy Director: Central Organisation) and Thurrah Behardien (Tygerberg region)

▷ David Webber (False Bay region) and Avril Labuschagne and Esné Bester from Hermanus and Worcester regions enjoying refreshments during the celebrations

△ (ltr) Petro Faasen NB Publishers, Nomaza Konkco (Deputy Director: Regional Organisation) and Nadine de Klerk, cosmetologist and one of the speakers